

Business Location

Spotlight on business

As one of the top nine of Switzerland's 106 economic regions, Baden is home to around 3,100 companies as well as the head offices of many international corporations.

Its central location, compact size, attractive job market for highly qualified specialists and modern infrastructure offer ideal conditions at a moderate cost for future-oriented industries. With a distinguished international profile and a high-tech-oriented SME landscape, the city guarantees a vibrant network in conjunction with renowned research centres and nearby universities. In cooperation with partners of the business sector, the city government is successfully implementing a development strategy for industry focal points.
